RAPPELLING CLINIC INFORMATION

WHEN: May 18-20, 2012 and Sept. 14-16, 2012 7p.m. Friday to 3 p.m. Sunday

WHAT: Rappelling Clinic - A weekend training clinic combining rappelling skills with fun and fellowship

Rappel Master - An individual who is qualified to lead his/her unit on rappelling outings; a Rappel Master is required for all rappelling tour permits/outings

To qualify as a Rappel Master, an individual must pass the intern portion of the program. This usually requires 2 to 4 clinics

WHO: Scouts (14 and older), BSA & Non BSA Adults & Troop Leadership

WHERE: Camp Falling Rock

12637 Houdeshell Rd

Newark, OH 43055

WHY: The objectives of the Rappelling Clinic are two-fold:

1. To help young scouts and novices learn safe and proper rappelling techniques
2. To qualify the more experienced participants as Rappel Masters

COSTS: Costs include food, lodging, and program materials. All first time attendees receive a locking D-ring, a Rappelling course manual, 20' section of webbing, 5' & 9' section of prusik line, and a patch.

PACKING: Participants should dress as the weather dictates and wear tight fitting clothes and a belt. Lodging and bunks will be provided; however, participants will need to supply their own bedding. You may also bring your own tent for housing.
